ELOPE TO THE KENT COUNTRYSIDE AT PORT LYMPNE

Port Lymgne Reserve offers a very special place for 'just the two of you' to elope and run away together. As well as incredible scenery, a historic venue and very wild neighbours, Port Lymgne's passionate team are ready to work with you to create an unforgettable occasion in the heart of the Kent countryside.

ELOPEMENT PACKAGE

YOUR CEREMONY

Gather your nearest and dearest for an intimate ceremony (maximum of 14 guests, including children) in our stunning Moroccan Courtyard (available April-October, weather permitting) or the striking Spencer Roberts Room, featuring floor to ceiling murals celebrating the beauty of nature. You will have access to your venue for one hour prior to your ceremony.

YOUR WITNESSES

Two witnesses can be provided at no extra charge, or you are welcome to have your own join you for your ceremony. Additional guests can be added on request (additional charges apply).

YOUR PHOTOGRAPHER

Your elopement package includes two hours with one of our recommended photographers, Jeff Oliver Photography or Megan Donati Photography. Further hours can be arranged for an additional cost.

CELEBRATE WITH US

After your ceremony, toast to your special day with a bottle of Gusbourne. Then continue your celebrations in The Garden Room, where your table will be waiting. Your elopement package includes a three-course dinner for two and a bottle of hand picked wine.

YOUR ACCOMMODATION

You will spend your first night together in a beautiful Executive Suite (subject to availability) at the Port Lympe Mansion. Speak to our team about enhancing your stay with an upgrade to one of our iconic lodges, available at an additional cost.

THE NEXT DAY

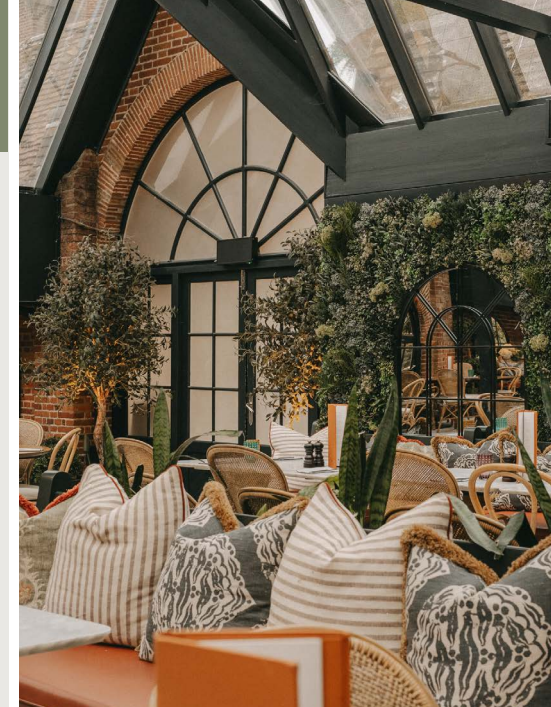

Breakfast will be served for you in The Garden Room Restaurant & Bar.

THE PORT LYMPNE TOUCH

You and your beloved are invited to explore our unique Kentish savanna aboard a private Rangers Tour for two on the day of or the day after your ceremony.

ADDITIONAL GUESTS

Additional guests can be added to your wedding party at an additional cost, including welcome drink, dinner in The Garden Room, an overnight stay at the Port Lympe Mansion and breakfast the following morning. Please speak to our team for more information.
